BACKGROUND

The English learning is a crucial issue in education especially to face ASEAN Economic Community (AEC) in 2016. In a global world, the mastery of English is a compulsory skill as an additional weapon to compete. The English learning should take important part so that the Indonesian can succeed competing with others in AEC era at the moment.

Nowadays, the linguist in Indonesia gives more attention to productive skills (speaking and writing) rather than receptive skills (listening and reading). Of course, it would change the learning paradigm to the more applicative and productive. That's why, the theme of national conference is "English Learning in 21st Century: Its Trends and Challenges to Face ASEAN Economy Community". The goal is to give more attention and to discuss the result of research concerning to the education and English learning to make our children ready to compete and to face ASEAN Economic Community.
